

EX-COUNCILMAN IS CLAIMED BY DEATH

Mark M. Cashmore, Ill for Week,
Expires at Fairview St. Home

Mark M. Cashmore of 112 Fairview street, died late yesterday afternoon at his home after a week's illness. Death was unexpected. Mr. Cashmore, who was a foreman at the American Hosiery plant, was taken ill last Wednesday, but was not confined to his bed until Saturday.

Mr. Cashmore was 66 years of age, having been born in Loughbury, England, May 16, 1858. He came to this country when quite young and has been employed at the American Hosiery plant for more than 44 years, of which a large part of that time he was a foreman. He was active in republican politics and served as councilman from the second ward in 1899, 1900 and 1901 and for the following two years was alderman from that ward. In 1915 he was clerk of the old board of public safety, which had jurisdiction of the police and fire departments.

Mr. Cashmore was a delegate to the probate convention in this district and at one time was prominent in a movement to nominate a republican to replace Judge R. P. Gaffney. The movement stirred up a political controversy for a time but did not prove a success, because of the general satisfaction in both parties with the record of Judge Gaffney.

Mr. Cashmore was one of the organizers of Everyman's Bible class, and until the last term was prominent in official circles in the Bible army. He is survived by a widow, one son, Charles H. of Passaic, N. J.; one daughter, Mrs. Franklin E. Sunburn, of this city; three grandchildren; three brothers, Harry and Ernest Cashmore of Roselle, N. J., and William A. Cashmore of New Britain; three sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Draper of New Britain, Mrs. James Ward and Mrs. William Davidson of Philadelphia, Pa. He was a member of the New England Order of Protection, the Knights of Pythias, Sir Francis Drake lodge, Sons of St. George, Court Pride, Foresters of America and Everyman's Bible class.

Rev. John L. Davis will officiate at funeral services, which will be private, at the home tomorrow afternoon. Burial will be in Fairview cemetery.

Don't Let That Cold Turn Into "Flu"

That cold may turn into "Flu," Grippe or, even worse, Pneumonia, unless you take care of it at once.

Put good old Musterole on the congested parts and see how quickly it brings relief.

Colds are merely congestion. Musterole, made from pure oil of mustard, camphor, menthol and other simple ingredients, is a counter-irritant which stimulates circulation and helps break up the cold.

As effective as the messy old mustard plaster, does the work without blister. Just rub it on with your finger-tips. You will feel a warm tingle as it enters the pores, then a cooling sensation that brings welcome relief.

To Mothers: Musterole is now made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole.

"Nothing is more erroneous. I am on the front with the supreme command of the revolution and its competent units. Our troops are more enthusiastic and will never consider themselves traitors until the traitors are overthrown."

GREAT BRITAIN'S NAVY ESTIMATE SHOWS CUTS

Reduction for 1924-25 Amounts to More than Two Million Pounds Sterling.

London, March 13.—Great Britain's navy estimates for 1924-25, as given out in a statement today by the first lord of the admiralty, Viscount Chelmsford, amount to £55,800,000, or a reduction of £2,200,000 as compared with the estimates for the present year. This figure includes the cost entailed in starting five new cruisers and two new destroyers, the plans for which were announced in parliament recently.

The strength of the personnel in all ranks will be 166,500 as against 192,300 in 1923-24. This is exclusive of the coast guard and marine police which will remain virtually unaltered.

"Translated into prewar figures by making allowances for differences in prices and wages," the first lord's statement says, "the total of £55,800,000 would represent approximately £24,500,000, of which £23,843,200 would be on the provision made for effective services. Hence the scale of expenditure for the navy has been brought much below the 1914-15 standard—in fact to what it was about the year 1903-04 before concentration of the fleet in home waters and its expansion to meet the growing German menace."

ON $5 BASIS NOW

Directors of Southern Railway Put Common Stock on This Plan of Declaring $1.25 Dividend.

New York, March 13.—Directors of the Southern Railway company today declared an initial dividend of $1.25 on the common stock, placing it on a $5 annual basis.

The dividend is the first to be paid on the 1,200,000 common shares since the reorganization of the road in 1921. Beginning in 1927 dividends on the preferred stock have ranged from 1 to 5 per cent annually.

The dividend caused the stock to jump 4 points to 55, a high record. The directors also declared the regular semi-annual dividend of 1-1/2 per cent on this preferred stock.

Referring to the common dividend, Fairfax Harrison, president of the road, said:

"For nearly thirty years the stockholders have waited while the property has been built up and the capital account has been secured. Meanwhile every other interest in the property—public, employees, and bond holders—has shared in the fruits of the industrial regeneration of the south."

RADIO LAW SUIT IS TO BE HURRIED ON

Early Action on Alleged Monopoly Planned

New York, March 13.—The independent broadcasters, against whom the American Telephone and Telegraph company has begun suits, alleging patent infringements, will raise a claim of justification, according to Col. Holland S. Duell of the law firm of Duell, Warfield & Duell, and counsel for Station WHN. Mr. Duell said this contention may occur in the settlement of the controversy over the "freedom of the air" without delving into the validity of the patents involved.

"The two suits brought by the A. T. & T. and the De Forest companies involve eight patents and appear to claim the fundamental use of a vacuum tube for radio broadcasting," he said. "We are informed that interests associated with the A. T. & T. sold the defendants the tubes and elements of their apparatus for use in the very relationship in which they have been used. If this is so, then a question of justified use is presented, which should settle the controversy."

Marcus Loew, part owner of the station, said also that he believed the issue was not one of patent infringement, but centered on "whether the A. T. & T. may own and control to its own aggrandizement the most important source of public information of the future." This statement was supplemented by another from the executive association of the Radio Association, which said it "viewed with alarm any proceeding which would place in the hands of one company the power to determine where and when stations should be established or dismantled."

The dispute raged on yesterday. Officials of the A. T. & T. reiterated their denials that they were seeking to control the air, while independents repeated their allegations of "a monopoly." It was disclosed, however, that the sore point with independent broadcasters rests in restrictions which these stations must agree to when they purchase sending sets. It was said these stations are prevented from receiving reimbursement of any sort for services are barred from broadcasting publicity and are kept from altering or repairing the mechanism.

The A. T. & T. officials made public an agreement which is signed by purchasers of broadcasting apparatus at the request of the patent holders. This agreement provides that the purchaser shall use the apparatus only in broadcasting matter pertinent to his business. The purchaser also is restrained from using it for the rendition of advertising or personal messages for others.

Other provisions in the contract are:

"That such apparatus shall be so maintained as not to interfere with or otherwise injure or impair either the wire or radio service of the American Telephone and Telegraph company and its associate companies."

"The purchaser has been advised by the company that there is no assurance that there will be wave lengths available for the use of such apparatus by the purchaser, and it is expressly understood and agreed by the purchaser that the company incurs no obligations or liability in this respect."

"The company is without power to authorize the connection of the apparatus furnished hereunder with any public service telephone communication system."

LABORITES DEFEATED

MacDonald Government Receives Set-Back on Motion For Suspension of Adjournment Rule.

London, March 13.—The MacDonald labor government received a set-back in the house of commons today when the proposal of J. R. Clynes, deputy leader in the house for the suspension of the eleven o'clock adjournment rule to discuss the army estimates was defeated, 224 to 297. The government, however, does not consider this a vital defeat.

The vote was received with great enthusiasm from the conservatives, who raised the traditional cry, "Reign!" Nothing happened, and Stephen Walsh, secretary for war, proceeded with the introduction of the army estimates.

The situation arose when former Premier Stanley Baldwin asked Mr. Clynes when the government wished to suspend the 11 o'clock adjournment rule. The deputy leader answered that the commons was behind in its business and that the course proposed was the only alternative to taking the private time of members.
